Subject: Mutual Recognition Arrangement (MRA) between India and Australia

Dear Esteemed Operators,

Greetings from Aditi Organic Certifications Pvt. Ltd.

We are pleased to inform you that the Mutual Recognition Arrangement (MRA) on organic products between India and Australia was signed on 24th September 2025. The official procedure for exports under this arrangement has been published on the APEDA website and NPOP portal. For your convenience, a copy is enclosed.

Scope of the MRA

- Unprocessed plant products (excluding seaweed, aquatic plants, and greenhouse crops)
- Processed plant-based foods, including certified organic ingredients from third countries if processed in India or Australia before export
- Wine

Key Requirements for Export from India to Australia

1. Compliance with NPOP standards for production, handling, and trading, along with relevant food safety regulations.
2. Each consignment must be accompanied by a Transaction Certificate (TC) generated on Tracenet.
3. Only products within the defined scope are eligible.
4. Non-compliant consignments will be treated as conventional, with sanctions as per the NPOP Sanction Catalogue.
5. Eligible products must carry the Unified India Organic logo.
